

This wine was given no time in oak and made entirely from grapes grown in the Dry Creek and Sonoma Valleys. It is light and fresh with a hint of lemon peel and a subtle, earthy tease of oak. It's one of the best wine values you'll find. Stainless-steel fermentation has been making headlines, and it's surrounded by buzz. The undeniable quality of the winery's 4th generation feat of history is what it offers lime green, buzzing acidity. Balance. Vineyard. With
